Cut and paste the sequence of events into the correct order. Illustrate your work.

"Hey Mack," said the first man.

"These penguins are amazing. Let's catch them! We could make a lot of money from them."

Frank and Chester took off. There was no way that they were stopping!

The penguins rolled around in the snow, and clapped their wings. Then they threw each other in the air, just as Chester had taught them.

"Get going," whispered Chloe, "and don't stop to rest, until you are outside the city gates."

While the men ran around in circles, chasing the penguins, Chloe sneaked inside and grabbed the key to the cage. In no time at all, Chester and Frank were free again.
